Class: FL 212, 5:00-6:20

Course Description  Weekly seminars provide an orientation to the professional aspects of interior design. Exploration of related careers, industry and professional societies occur through interaction with invited guest speakers.

Supplies  I-Clicker phone app is required and the I-Clicker is optional for all those who do not have a smart phone. Either can be purchased at the campus bookstore. Please remember to register your I-Clicker online. You will find a link to the registration page as well as user instructions on back of the I-Clicker. It is your responsibility to make sure your I-Clicker is in working order.

Computer Policy  Computers are not required and should not be open during class.
i-clicker Policy  Students are responsible for registering their i-clicker before the start of this course. Quizzes will be recorded ONLY through i-clicker. It is the student's responsibility to make sure there are no malfunctions. It is recommended that you check canvas after each class period to make sure you have received credit.

Attendance will be verified each class period through the use of your registered i-clicker.

Verify your i-clicker registration at: https://www1.iclicker.com/register-clicker/ (Links to an external site.)
Follow the easy instructions to register your i-clicker every semester.

Using an i-clicker on behalf of another student will result in failure of the course and dismissal from the ID program. Failure to bring the i-clicker will result in half credit (once).

Be on time and don’t leave early! The class hours are 5:00-6:20. If you miss the i-clicker quiz you will be marked absent. THIS WILL BE ENFORCED! Failure to attend a seminar will reflect heavily on your final grade. Missed classes cannot be made up.

IDEA Objectives

Gaining a broader understanding and appreciation of interior design

Learning to apply course material (to improve thinking, problem solving, and decisions)

Developing specific skills, competencies, and points of view needed by professionals in ID and the fields closely related to it.

Seminar objectives

1. to provide an opportunity for the entire interior design program to meet and get to know each other;
2. to gain a greater knowledge about university opportunities (i.e., scholarships, travel) and the professional interior design associations.
3. to expose students to the many aspects of the profession---from manufacturing to retail sales to professional interior designers.

IDEA Survey

When you receive the IDEA Survey at the end of the semester please fill it out as soon as possible.

Attendance

Depending on the structure of each class, attendance is recorded in three different ways.

1. Completing in class i-clicker quizzes
2. Turning in a written report as assigned
3. Signing a class roster-- (applicable only when class is held outside of the classroom)

Course Grading

Grading will be as follows: 80% Attendance 20% Quizzes.
Attendance will be taken for each seminar, a total of 7 class periods. Attendance for each weekly class will be worth 11.5% of your final grade (for a total of 80%). Quiz questions will be given at random and answered by i-clicker.

ADA Statement

The American with Disabilities Act states: “Reasonable accommodation will be provided for all persons with disabilities in order to ensure equal participation within the program.” If a student has a disability that will likely require some accommodation by the instructor, the student must contact the instructor and document the disability through the Disability Resource Center (797-2444), preferably during the first week of the course. Any request for special consideration relating to attendance, pedagogy, taking of examinations, etc., must be discussed with and approved by the instructor. In cooperation with the Disability Resource Center, course materials can be provided in alternative format, large print, audio, diskette, or Braille.

Plagiarism Statement

Plagiarism includes knowingly “representing, by paraphrase or direct quotation, the published or unpublished work of another person as one’s own in any academic exercise or activity without full and clear acknowledgement. It also includes the unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials” (Code of Policies and Procedures for Students, Article V, Section 3A.1). The penalties for plagiarism are severe. They include “#1) warning or reprimand and #2) grade adjustment” (see Article VI, Section 1A): Other penalties may also be imposed at the Dean’s discretion. These include probation, suspension, expulsion, withholding of transcripts, denial or revocation of degrees, referral to psychological counseling, and other appropriate disciplinary actions. Article VI: Discipline, Section 5C“Whenever a student is suspected of a(n) academic dishonesty violation(s), the accused student shall be notified by the instructor of the violation and its consequences, as soon possible. Penalties #1 and #2 of Article VI, Section I are administered by the instructor in consultation with the Department Head. If the violation results in a grade adjustment, the incident shall be reported to the academic Dean and the Vice President for student services. If the student is a graduate student, the incident shall also be reported to the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies."

Evacuation Procedures
In case of an emergency, please walk to the nearest exit and stay clear from the building. Do not return until the building is declared safe. Take any valuable possessions with you.
