collections. I know how useful it will be to the rest of the world.

...organized and uploaded by the end of the day.

...fields are correct, that the legacy of information is recorded the same way, and that abbreviations

...From Bisitun, Iran. Due to the COVID

...sees volunteers, interns, work study students,

...tion to the collection.

...Dr. Brad Hafford and I determine

...Above: Dr. Brad Hafford and I determine

...Washington, D.C.

...only a few choice pieces are put on public display. But a museum collection is full of as many surpris-

...Day Five

...the oldest wine jars in the world and its contents with the BBC. I was present to handle the object

...from their collections on display during a

...Day Four

...the objects to storage. Although the event

...walls of ancient Babylon, and a brick stamp

...Nebuchadnezzar's name, bricks from the

...related to the upcoming performance of

...treating a millenia

...Oftentimes, putting something into a

...The curator in charge of my section has been asked to work with the university's Working Dog

...My undergraduate degree in Classical and Near Eastern Archaeology is from Bryn Mawr Col-

...als in a broader sense to a diverse audience.

...at various museum excavations in Italy, Syria, and Israel over the last twenty years.

...range from the Neolithic Period to the Ottoman Empire, from the Levant, ancient Iran, and Mesopo-

...The bread and butter of collections work: making sure that the

...It's the bread and butter of collections work: making sure that the

...It's the bread and butter of collections work: making sure that the

...It's the bread and butter of collections work: making sure that the

...It's the bread and butter of collections work: making sure that the