

CALVIN FLETCHER SCHOLARSHIP

2017-18

APPLICATION DEADLINE: March 1, 2017

SCHOLARSHIP DESCRIPTION

Description:

The Calvin Fletcher Scholarship is established in memory of Calvin Fletcher (1882-1963), Art Department Head during the early days of Utah State Agricultural College, later Utah State University. Calvin Fletcher will be remembered for his years of service to and innovation to the Utah State University Art Department, to the Utah art scene, and as a representative on the national art scene. He was a member of national and local arts associations, served in various official capacities, won numerous local awards, and exhibited nationally. However, his most important contribution to Utah art is probably his public support for “modern forms of art interpretation.” During his tenure at Utah State, Fletcher created an “artists-in-residence” program.
